MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Nomination of Candidates

(1) Advanced Management Program, Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University

(2) Armed Forces Staff College

Recommendations for the approval of the Deputy Director of Central Intelligence are contained in paragraph 3 of this memorandum.

1. The CIA Career Council submits herewith its nominations of candidates to attend the sessions of the Advanced Management Program, Graduate School of Business Administration, Harvard University, and of the Armed Forces Staff College, which are scheduled to commence in the late summer. Attached are summaries of the qualifications and experience of the persons whose attendance is recommended for your approval.

2. Each of the three Deputy Directors (Intelligence, Plans, and Support) nominated two candidates for each of the schools for the consideration of the Career Council. The Council interviewed eight of the candidates - all that were stationed in Washington - and considered the qualifications of the others.

3. The Council unanimously recommends

(a) to attend Harvard University, Advanced Management Program (Agency quota 1)

4. In previous years, the Director of Training has advised the Dean of the Graduate School of Harvard of the name of the Director's candidate by letter and forwarded the background material and the supporting documents which Harvard requires. If you approve the Council's recommendation, the Director of Training will ensure that this communication reaches Harvard on 15 May which will meet the schedule required by the University.

5. No formal invitation to send a representative has yet been received from the Armed Forces Staff College although one is expected. When this is received the Director of Training will prepare for your signature a reply nominating the candidate when you have approved.

Signed

Harrison G. Reynolds
Chairman, CIA Career Council
